

Day One - 10th May 2017 WEDNESDAY
09:00	GC 101	Welcome:		Parallel Sessions
09:15-10.10		Plenary I: (Chair)
		Foundational economy collective provides plenary (names tbc)
		30 mins presentation + 20 mins discussion
10:10-10.30	GC 104	Coffee Break
10:30-12.00	GC 101	Session I Financialization without profit?: (Discussant)	GC103	Session I(A) Thinking differently (Discussant)
		Sandro Busso + Joselle Dagnes (a) Value Extraction in non-profits; (b) financialization of Italian Families and Debt; c) Davide Arcidiacono on good and bad sharing economy; d) Amanda Coles, Not business as usual; conceptualising inequality in cultural industries.		a) Sergio Marotta, Thinking differently, acting differently; b) June Sekera Public Goods: Reclaiming a Confiscated concept; c) Nicola Riva on the social determinants on minimally decent life; d) Dominik Safari, Ecology and cultural value and sustainable development
		4 papers 15 minutes + Discussion (30mins)		4 papers 15 minutes + Discussion (30mins)
12:00-13.00	GC 101	Project report/ activity on doing things differently: Building Bloqs, Doughty St chambers, St Clements Land Trust, Stephen Mumby Liverpool Remunicipalization + John Buchanan
		60 mins 10 minutes each: past, present and future
13.00-14.00	GC 104	Lunch
14.00-15.30	GC 101	Session II Place, territory and the mundane: (Discussant)	GC 103	Session II(A) Accounting for what (Discussant)
		a) Peter Fairbrother and Val Prokopiv Constructing new regional settlements: doing things differently; b) Mark Lang, Using deep place for public policy and local economic development; c) Anna Marson, Rediscovering places as a collective heritage for lasting self-development; d) to add Andreas Novy, title to be confirmed.		a) Olivier Boutellis-Taft, Revaluing the Mundane; b) Chris Humphrey, Accounting as technical or liberal education; c) Haslam et al, Mimicking private sector accounting in public sector entities and impact on foundational services; d) Dario Minervini, Values in a bottle
		4 papers 15 minutes + Discussion (30mins)		4 papers 15 minutes + Discussion (30mins)
15:30-15.45	GC 104	Coffee Break
15:45-16.35	GC 101	Plenary 2: Maurizio Franzini (Chair)
		Economic Power, Inequality and the Mundane: How to Break a Vicious Circle 30 mins presentation + 20 mins discussion
16:35-17.45	GC 101	Session III The showcasing of Greater Manchester (Discussant)	GC 103	Session III(A) Civic Enterprise and Governance in the Neoliberal order (Discussant)
		a) Mike Hodson and Kim Wei, title to be confirmed; b) Anne Safford, Transforming the mosaic city a financial analysis of transportation provision; c) Mick Moran, Julie Froud &amp; Karel Williams, title to be confirmed.		Hendrik Wagenaar, Lifeworld and systems world; Jurgen van der Heijden, The non-competitive economy: citizen initiatives against populism; Kuitenbrouwer, Collaborative learning and co-operative policy making for everyday intractable problems.
		3 papers 15 minutes + 25 mins discussion		3 papers 15 minutes + 25 mins discussion
17.45-18.00		Break
18.00-19.10	Arts 2 LT	Plenary 3 / Public lecture – Henry Mintzberg Journey in pursuit of a rebalanced society
19.30-10.00	SCR	Drinks & conference dinner (Senior Common Room)

Day Two - 11 th May 2017 THURSDAY			Parallel Sessions
09:00 -9.50	GC 101	Plenary 4: Jane Wills (Chair) Democracy, Knowledge and the University 30 mins presentation + 20 mins discussion
9.50-10.50		The econocracy: a) Joe Earle, Cahal Moran, Zach Ward Perkins; b) Aeron Davis c) Glenn Morgan as respondent 1 hour brief presentations and discussion
10.50-11.10	GC 104	Coffee Break
11:10-12.00	GC 101	Plenary Session 5: Peggy Kohn (Chair) Why Should Parks Be Public? Solidarity and Dissent in Everyday Life 30 mins presentation + 20 mins discussion
12.10-1.00	GC 101	Plenary Session 6: (Chair) Marc Humbert Convivialism: Reframing Society and Economy 30 mins presentation + 20 mins discussion
12.50-13.30	GC 104	Lunch
13.30-15.00	GC101	Session IV Urban systems: (Discussant) a) Stephen Hall & Alex Schafran, From foundational economics to foundational urban systems ; b) Julia Hislop, Participatory housing: rethinking home through co-production ; c) Pauli and Salento Housing and the right to the city (d) Adam Leaver, title to be confirmed	GC 105	Session IV (A) on Care (Discussant) Amy Horton QMUL proposal for a session re doing care differently; a) Mark Bergfeld, Community through Corporatization? The case of Spanish nurses in the German care industry ; b) Amy Horton, Public storytelling for a caring economy
15.00- 15.15	GC 104	Coffee Break
		Session V Brexit
15.15-16.00		a) Sukhdev Johal and Karel Williams, UK regions after Brexit ; Charlie Dannreuther, Brexit as a teachable moment
16.15		Close

The colloquium will take place in the Graduate Centre at Queen Mary University. <http://www.qmul.ac.uk/investing-campus/graduate-centre/>

Rooms are all on the first floor GC 101, 103, 105 & 105

On the 10th May the Public Lecture will take place in Arts 2 Lecture Theatre at 6pm

On the 10th May the dinner will take place in the Senior Common Room in the Queens Building at Mile End and close to the Graduate Centre

Entrance

Graduate Centre (18)
Colloquium plenaries
/presentations

Queens Building (19)
Senior Common Room
Dinner 10th May from 7pm

Arts 2 Lecture Theatre (35)
Henry Mintzberg lecture

Entrance

Hotels close to Queen Mary University (see link below)

https://www.tripadvisor.co.uk/HotelsNear-g186338-d8269693-Queen\_Mary\_University\_of\_London-London\_England.html

Nearest Tube Stations are Mile End or Stepney Green

